TROPICAL IMAGES

REMEMBER?

Balmy summer breezes whispering through silvery palm trees ...

Sparkling blue water pounding on fine, white sand beaches

Spanish-style villas nestling among jungle trees ... and tourists, in bright colored straw hats sipping creamy, tropical fruit drinks

REMEMBER?

When the "tropical schedule" really happened, we started school before the sun started his day, and electric power became "appreciated?"
When "Condition Readiness One" meant sheets of water propelled by typhoon winds, and windows lit by candlelight?

When Stateside friends wrote with envy about our "year-long" sun tans? And we uttered those precious words, "The States," with awe and longing.

REMEMBER?

DEDICATION

*I took the one less

And that has made all the difference.*

And miles to go before I sleep.*

R. FROST

Eula Fulmore Gipson, a teacher of Social Studies and Project Touchdown at Wagner High School, is a native of King Street, South Carolina. She graduated with a B.S. degree from Claflin College, Orangeburg, South Carolina and a M.S. degree from Michigan State University.

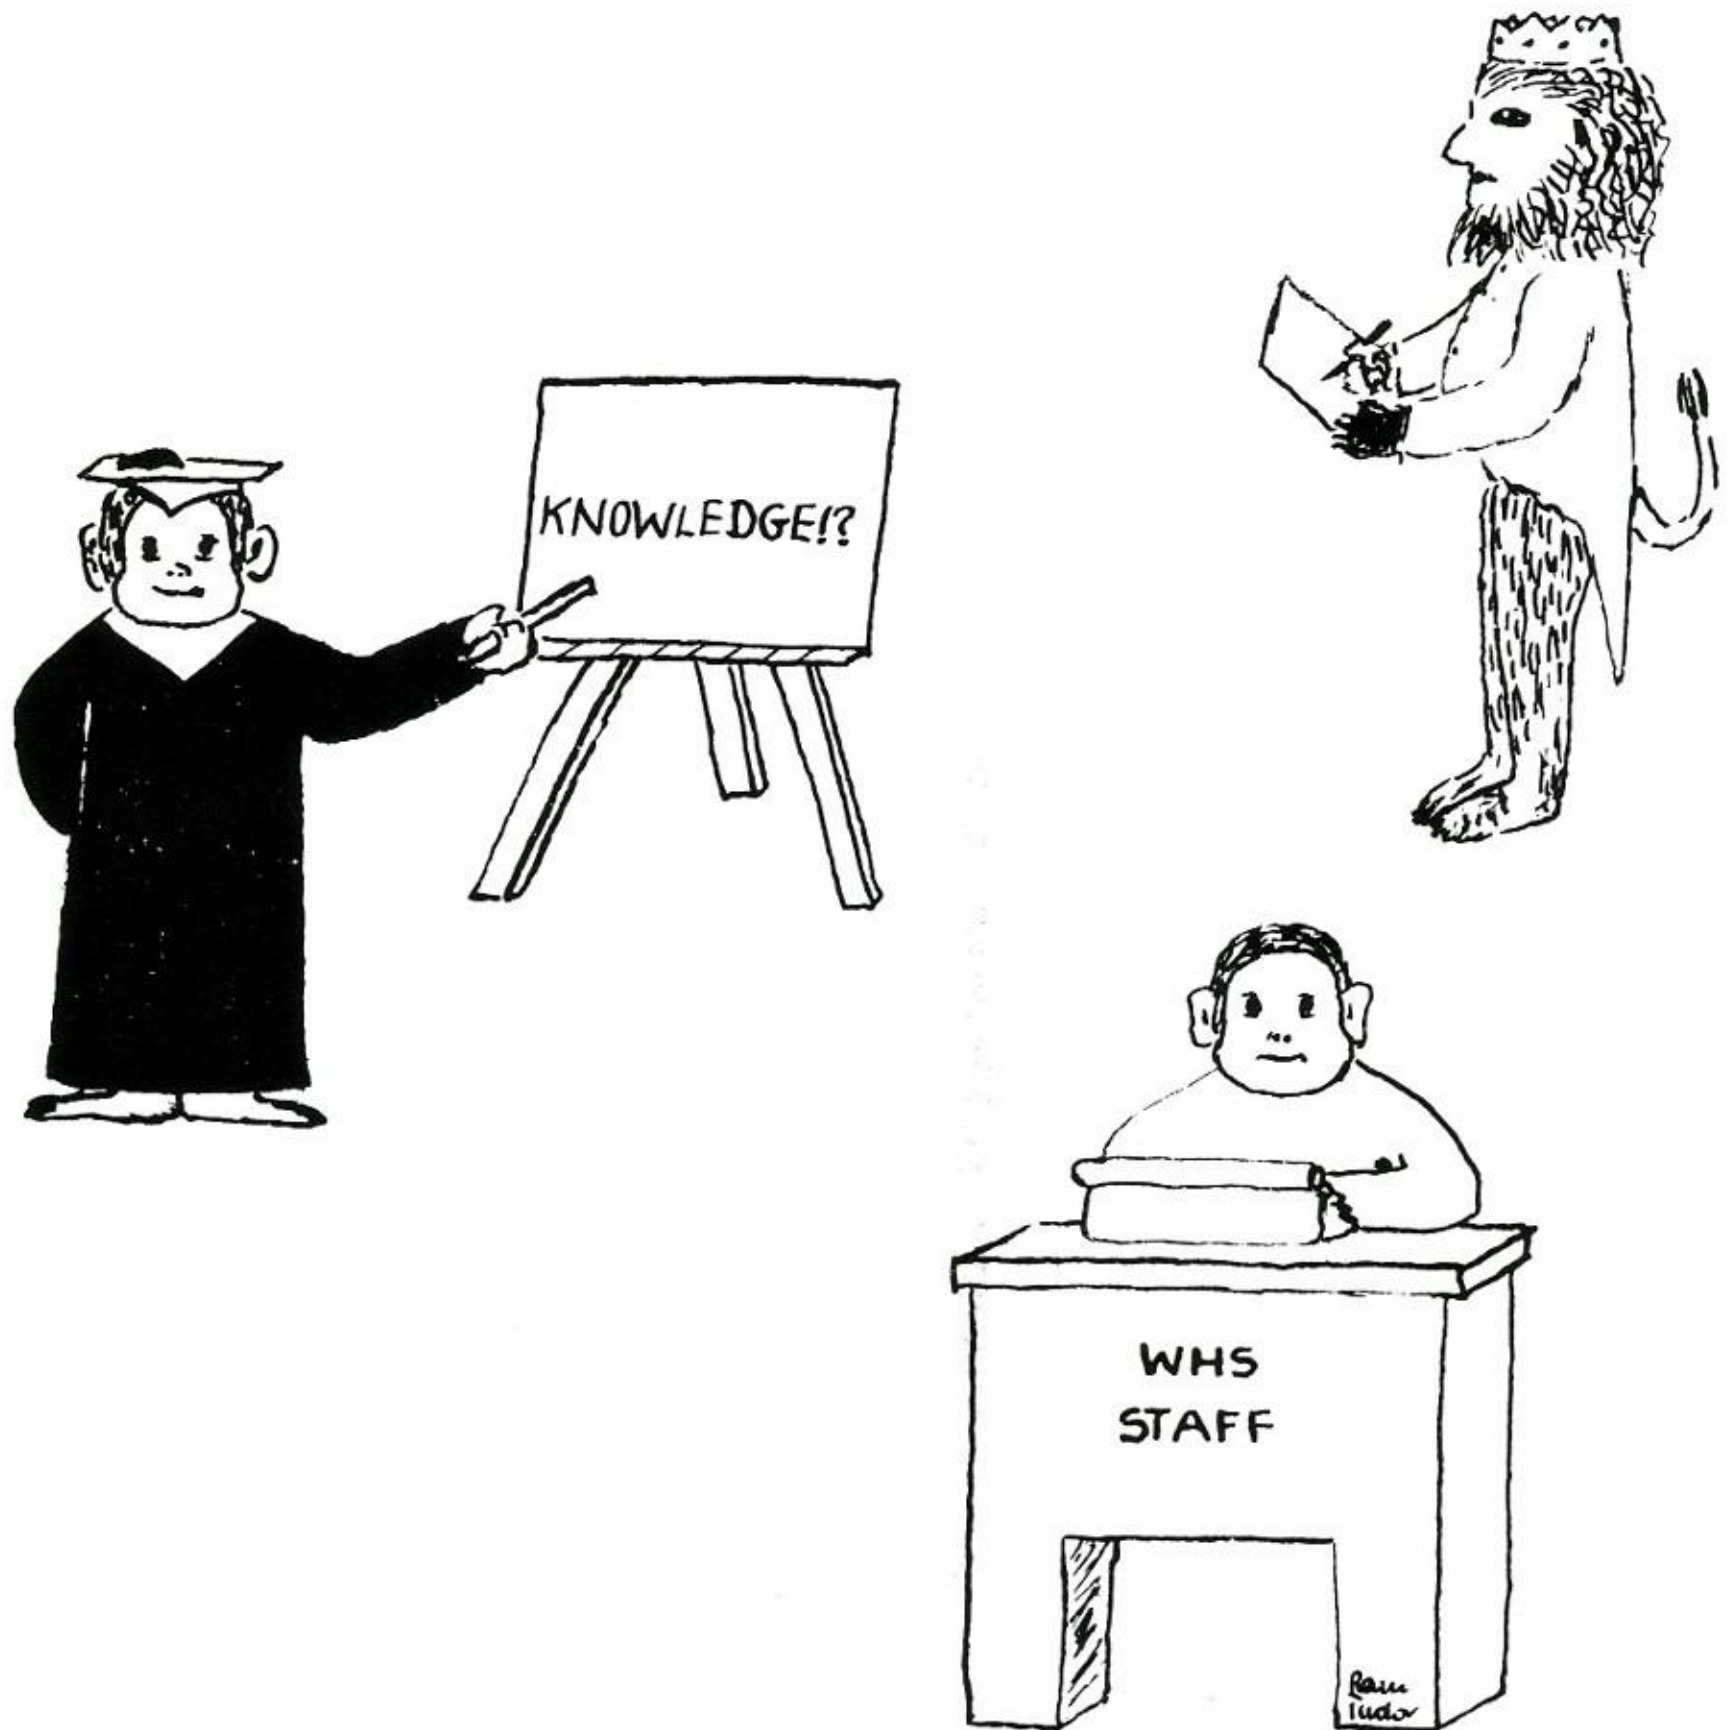

Ms. Gipson, a participant of many activities, has sponsored and co-sponsored the Student Government Association, Senior Class, and was the co-ordinator for the Black History Week for two years. She has written a course entitled "Multi-Cultural Studies in America".

Ms. Gipson, a teacher for four years at Wagner High School will be leaving Clark AB with her husband Tsgt. James Gipson and her two sons Kirk and Kyle, for Shaw AB, South Carolina.

Expressing her feelings to the administration, faculty and student body, Ms. Gipson said, "Being a part of the Wagner High School family was a learning experience and I really enjoyed being a part of it. Good Luck to the graduating seniors!"

We are happy to dedicate the Fledging 1983 to a teacher who has unselfishly given so much to Wagner High, has always been an exemplary person, and leaves many warm memories with us. To Ms. Gipson we can only say, "May every good thing come your way, always, and all ways. And may there be a wonderful, new "Road" waiting for you.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Pamela Rhea Alder

I, Rhea Alder, being of unsound mind and uncertain motives, do hereby leave to Elaine Vargas, my flirting skills; to Carolyn Cawley, my duck shoes and poems; to Tracy Moulds, I leave all of my special movies and fruit; to Deanna Starnes, my senior shirt; to Stacy Moulds, my hang ten socks; to my brother, Phil, I leave my car; and to all my other friends, I leave all of my love. Oh yeah, to Kim VanDyke, I leave my wacky mind.

Katherine Anne Andrews

I, Kathy Andrews, leave to Jennifer Gustke, my #1 locker in the 200 wing; to Tracee Cush, I leave a book on how to brainwash your parents. I leave to Russ Adams my camera and all my negatives from photo. To Tracy and Stacy Moulds, I leave my good grades so they won't get put on restriction for two months; and to all future Wagnerites, I leave all the great fun times at Wagner.

Michelle Shirley Barlow

I, Michelle Barlow, being of sound mind and soon to graduate, hereby bequeath my locker to Kim Griffeth; my old folders to Bobby Gonzalez; and my baby trucks to Liz Clay.

David C. Bautista

I will my great body, looks, and charisma to Tai Ho.

Ruth Lynn Birdsall

I leave my camera to Tonya Flood, my top locker to Tina Lindsay, and all my books to Michelle Garcia.

Frank J. Brown III

To my sister, I leave my experiences of the 11th & 12th grades. To my teachers, I leave my thanks for making me a senior. To my friends, I leave the things I let behind.

Linda Marie Buck

I will to Mike Coffield all of my teachers (especially Mrs. Mitchum, Mr. Edgerly, and Mr. Wood) who really made me want to learn.

Marlene E. Canaya

I leave all my health and government notes to the ZODS. Joanne Petrone, Mimi Foxx, Cindy and Debbie Naylor, and Elaine Vargas used them well. To my dearest sister, Lisa, I leave my senioritis from the day I graduates until the day she graduates.

Cassandra Mia Chatman

I, Cassandra Chatman, being of sound mind and graduating, do hereby bestow the following: To Willie Galon, my personal freshman, I leave my locker. To Darrell Lindsay, I leave my folders. To all up and coming track stars, I leave Mrs. Means. To all underclassmen, I leave the teachers.

Stephanie Elaine Clay

I, Stephanie Clay, in sound mind and soon to become a graduate, leave my height to Darrell Keith Lindsay.

Marcia Allison Corprew

I will the seat of Concert Band Mistress to Sheila Stamps so she can pipe out all the high F's. I will Rani Tudor the right to become "Chicago's" big sister. I will to Eric Brown the right to all Kim Damron leaves behind (i.e. locker, flower, etc.).

Kimberly H. Damron

To Eric Brown, I leave all my "smiley" golf balls. To Jennifer White and Rani Tudor, I bequeath my copy of "Rudy's Guide to Yoga Tennis". To Sheila

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Stamps, I leave my reserved spot in front of the pacman machine. To Terry Brader, I leave a new muffler for his moped.

Paul S. Deanda

I will all my good jokes to Keith Griffin, since I am graduating early, so he can have a chance at a sense of humor, like me. I leave my artistic talent to Dennis Maurer because of his lack of talent in anything.

Susan Elaine Dillion

I will all my government notes to Stephanie Hunt so she won't have to go through the pain. I will all my paper to Kim VanDyke so she can pick up on mine and Kelly Dinning's note writing and continue to drive Mr. McKinnon crazy. Have Fun!!!

Kelly Ann Dinning

I, Kelly Dinning, being of unsound mind will: To the parachicks, all the memories of "Strawberry Shortcake", "special movies", "Fruit", and "Joy". To Tracy Moulds, my algebra skills, "#23", my green M & M's, and anything else she wants. To Tim Thibault (my personal freshman) and Robby LeBlanc and all other moped riders, I leave my spare car keys (not the car, just the keys). To Kim VanDyke and Stephanie Hunt, I leave my wall, my notes, my pictures, and my luck! PLS. take care of Paradox. To Mike Neeley, I leave the famous Balut Courier and my unfinished stories. To Loren Cottrell and Robert Larioza, I leave Mr. Cabret and his freezer. To Wagner, I leave everything else (you need all the help you can get).

Edgar T. Eloriaga

I leave all my worldly possessions to be divided amongst my friends.

Linda H. Fanthorpe

Linda
I, Linda Fanthorpe, being of "seldom mind and sometimes body", will to Sheila Stamps, a candy bar and the whole Coca Cola Corp. to Terry Brader, a new moped muffler; to Tom Daly, smiles and more smiles; to Jennifer White, a Prince Tennis racket; to Eric Brown, ha, ha, ha!

Rhonda Kay Fields

I, Rhonda Fields, in absent mindedness, leave a piece of my mind to my sister because she needs all she can get.

Tamara Diane Gardner

To Michele, I leave all my best wishes for her future with John, and an everlasting friendship; to Russell Adams, I leave behind my love for plain "M & M's"; to Dr. Mitchum, I leave behind my thanks for such a kind person, and I leave him my love for Halston; To Mr. Edgerly, I leave behind my talent for fixing watches.

William G. Grant

I, William Grant, being of sound mind and body, leave my old beer cans to those poor souls who never drank with me. To all the tobacco chewers, I leave my old snuff, to those unfortunate students not old enough to buy it.

Lisa Lanette Griffin

I leave Kim all the teachers.

Rodney Keith Griffin

I will my senioritis to my freshman, Tammy, so she'll have as much fun as I did; my drawing talent and abilities to Bruce Jensen who needs the desperately; my inspiration to my little brother, Kevin, that will hopefully pick up his school grades; and finally my gratitude to all my teachers for pulling me through (and my dirty socks and cuts)..

Cordell G. Hipolito

I, Cordell G. Hipolito, leave Mike Nee-ly my rance, four cadillacs, and my Celica Supra. He will also receive my house and everything in it including the termites and roaches.

Dean C. Hoglen Jr.

I, Dean C. Hoglen Jr., being of sound mind and body, leave my good looks, high intelligence, and great personal-ity, and extreme modesty to some poor, forsaken freshman.

Denise Kelly

I, Denise Kelly, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave all my ac-counting abilities to Tommy Daly.

Marvin J. Loback

I leave my grief to my brother, who has two more years left in this school.

Stig Lovstad

I will all my great tennis skills along with all my infinite patience and ex-emplary attitude to Greg Giandomen-ica. May he become a great player like me. I will all my bitter defeats (there are a lot) and all my frustra-tions and tears to Eugene Likins. "You're getting too good too fast. Maybe this will slow you down." I will the presidency to Aaron Sosnick. May he be forever caught up in red tape and committees. I will all my personal combats with Mrs. Means to ... no, that would be too cruel.

Dennis B. Maurer

To Wagner High, I leave my books. To my little brother, I leave my good looks and charm; and to whomever may need it, I leave my sense of hu-mor.

Christopher L. Maxey

To Ms. Greenwalt, I leave all my red laced geometry and algebra II test papers that I so faithfully failed. To Mr. Woods, I leave the understanding that Alabama is #1!

Rodney L. McCollum

I, Rodney McCollum, being of sound mind and body, leave my body to who-ever wants it. I'm just keeping my sound mind. I would also like to leave some common sense to Scott McDan-iels.

Marita A. McGhee

To my sister, Karen, I hereby leave my brain to her. It may not do her any good, but I'm still leaving it.

Ramon Melendez

I leave all my books, especially my trig book, for next year's bonfire.

Marjorie Lanette Minor

I, Marjorie Minor, will my good grades to my brother and others in need; and to all my friends that ability to mind their own business and the memories of "making it through"; and the class of '84—SENIORITY!"

Lee Moreno

To Eric Brown, I leave a little skill as a golfer, and lots of luck in life.

Kathleen Marie Murphy

I will the Clark Flying Dolphins, he leaky goggles, torn caps, and faded swim suits to Todd Michaels. I will my busy calendar to Tammy Bremer — you'll get yours too! I will my leftover COBOL cards and programs to Angie McKenna, have fun in advanced CO-BOL. I will my reputation, and hard-work at WHS to Jay — keep it going "little brother".

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Sotera Perez

I leave all my old essays and other grade school works (with good grades) for my sister, Shirley A. Perez, for her future use.

Danny Delmar Ramsey

I hope the wrestlers will be great next year. More power to you Jeff.

Robert Rhodes

I hope my life is long and joyful. I hope one day we'll all meet in the heavens! Maybe one day this cruel world will be in a normal brotherhood of love in a land where people can be and do what they really want.

Leolie May Sanidad

I will whatever is left of my brain to science.

Carma Michele Steely

To Tammy, I leave an eternal friendship and best wishes for her future with Brian, and a lifetime supply of Ciara; to A'leisha Phillips, I leave my job at the hospital; to Kim Bolick, I leave very special thanks for taking the time to understand and help me through some rough times; To Mike Neely, I leave everything marroon.

Anita Lynn Williams

I leave all my books to Tina Lindsay. I leave my locker to Kelly Brown. I leave all my teachers to Tammy Williams and Brenae Wilson.

Jerry L. Witcher

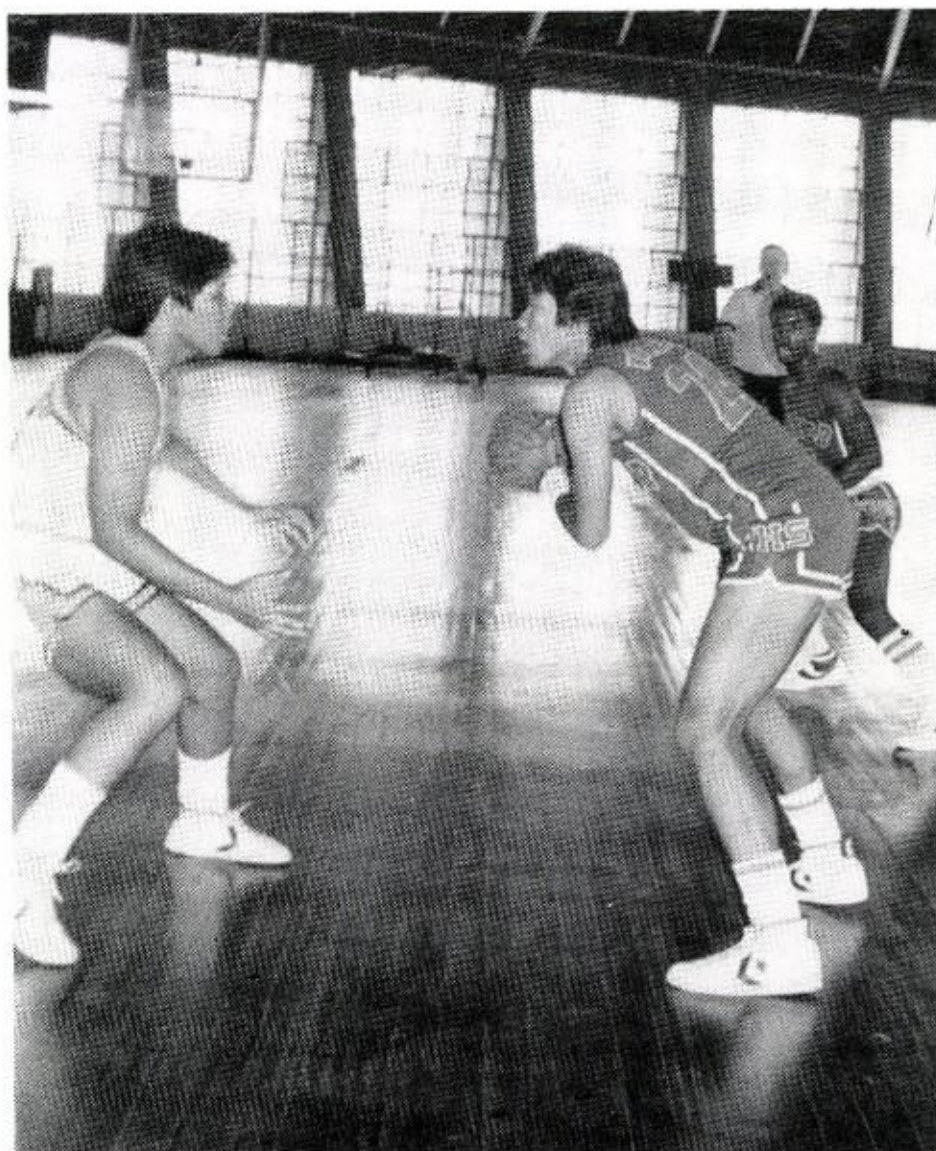

To Mark Parker; I leave my old smelly football jerseys. To Chalmer Bortz; I leave my old scratched record albums. To James Grant; I leave my Atari Baseball cartridge.

Judith Marie Willocks

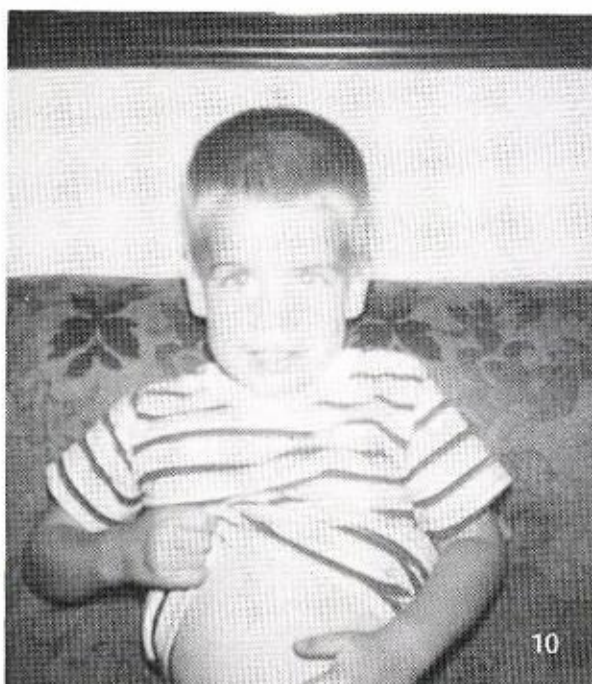

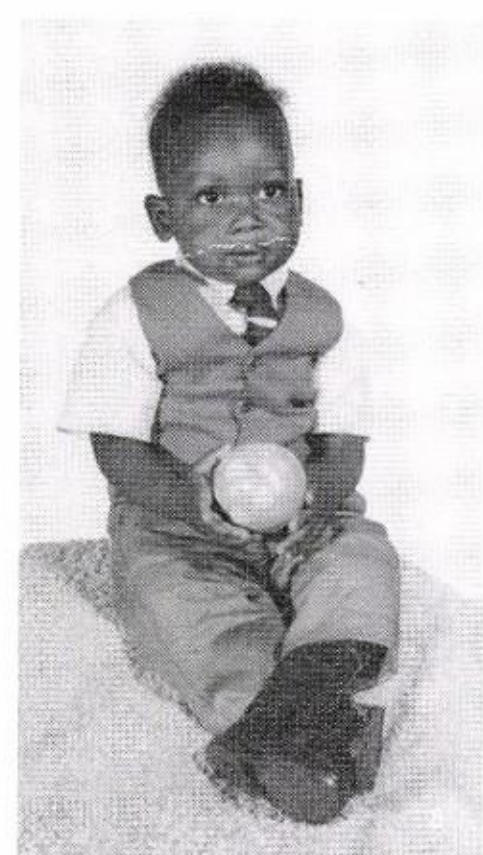

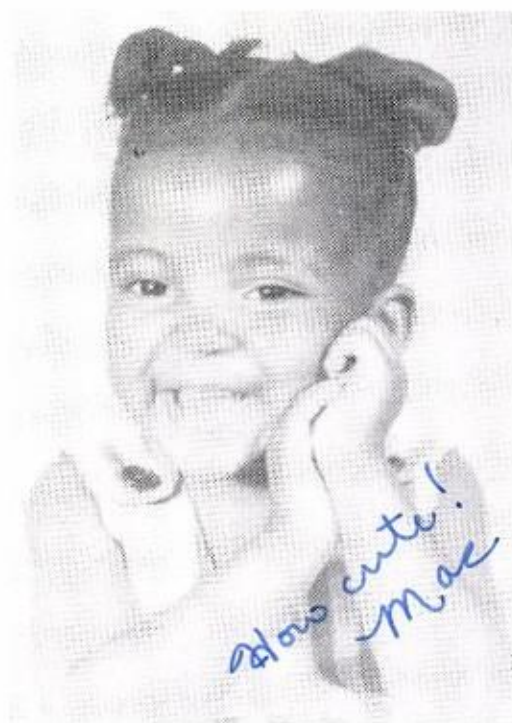

I, Judy Willocks, (soon to be Mrs. Neal), being of sound mind and body will to all of the underclassmen, the ability to express themselves and live out their dreams. I also wish Michael Lippi good luck in his modeling career and expect an autographed copy of him in "G.Q." magazine.

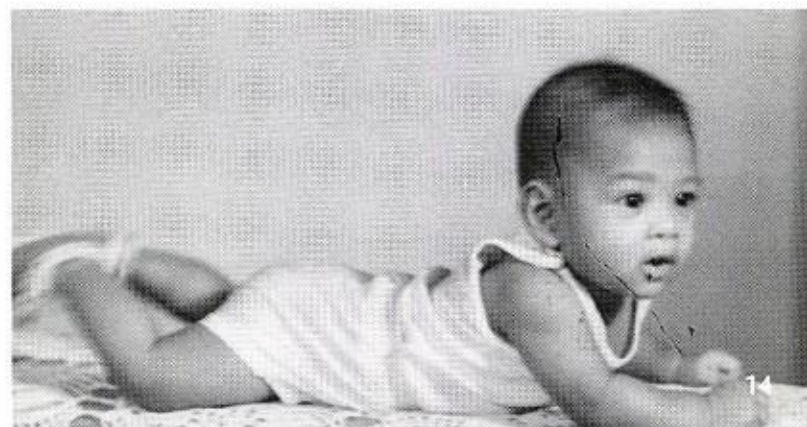

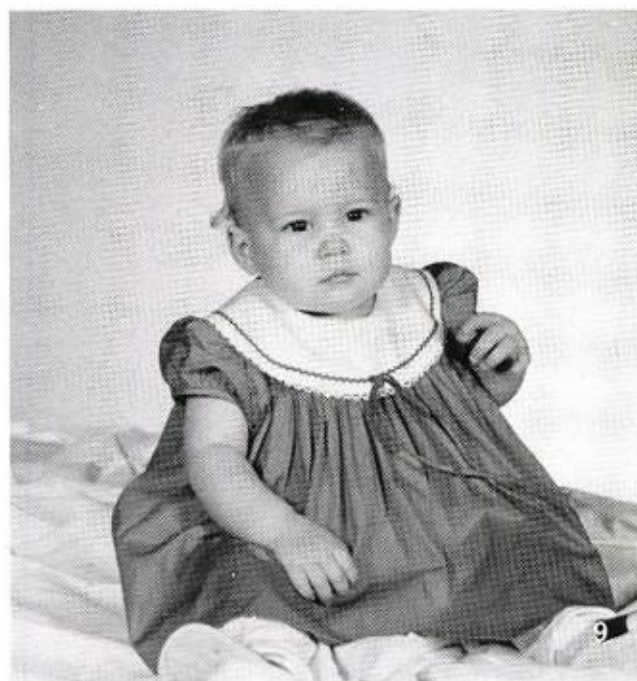

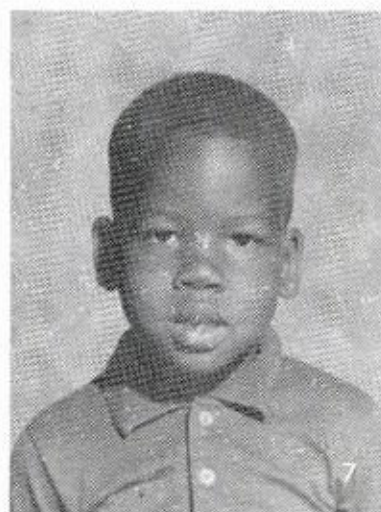

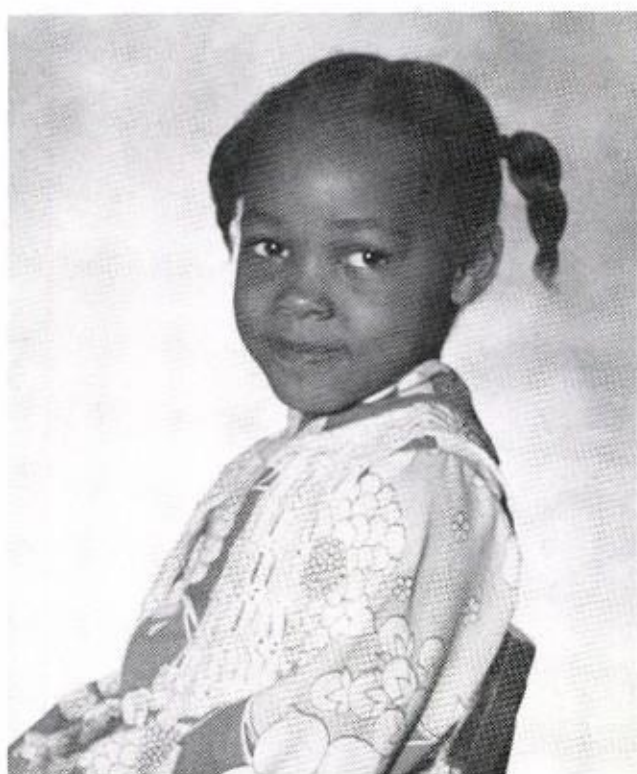

Jeffrey Alan Worth

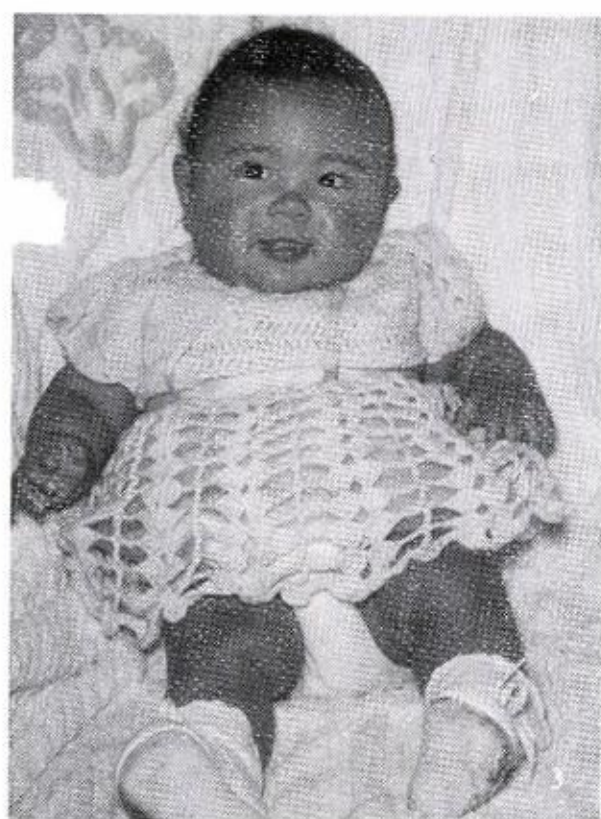

I leave the Park to the class of '84, my pencils and pens to charity, my motorcycle to Ms. March, and my government notes to the first person to come up with five bucks.

84 JUNIORS

Greila,

I'm glad I met you this year. You're a real sweet person. I'm glad that we juniors stick together because the class of 84 rules over all the other classes. We had a lot of great times in Mr. Whitman's class. And, in McKinnon's class. And, in red face of his, class. That red face of his, and in ceramics class the first semester. I wish I was going to be here next year so we could have some classes together but I'm leaving to the Great USA. But don't worry I won't forget you in this little box on the island of none other than the Philippines. Maybe we will meet in the future. I hope so. I'll probably see you reporting on the news. Then I could say "hey's Greila stars, I know that would be neat!!"

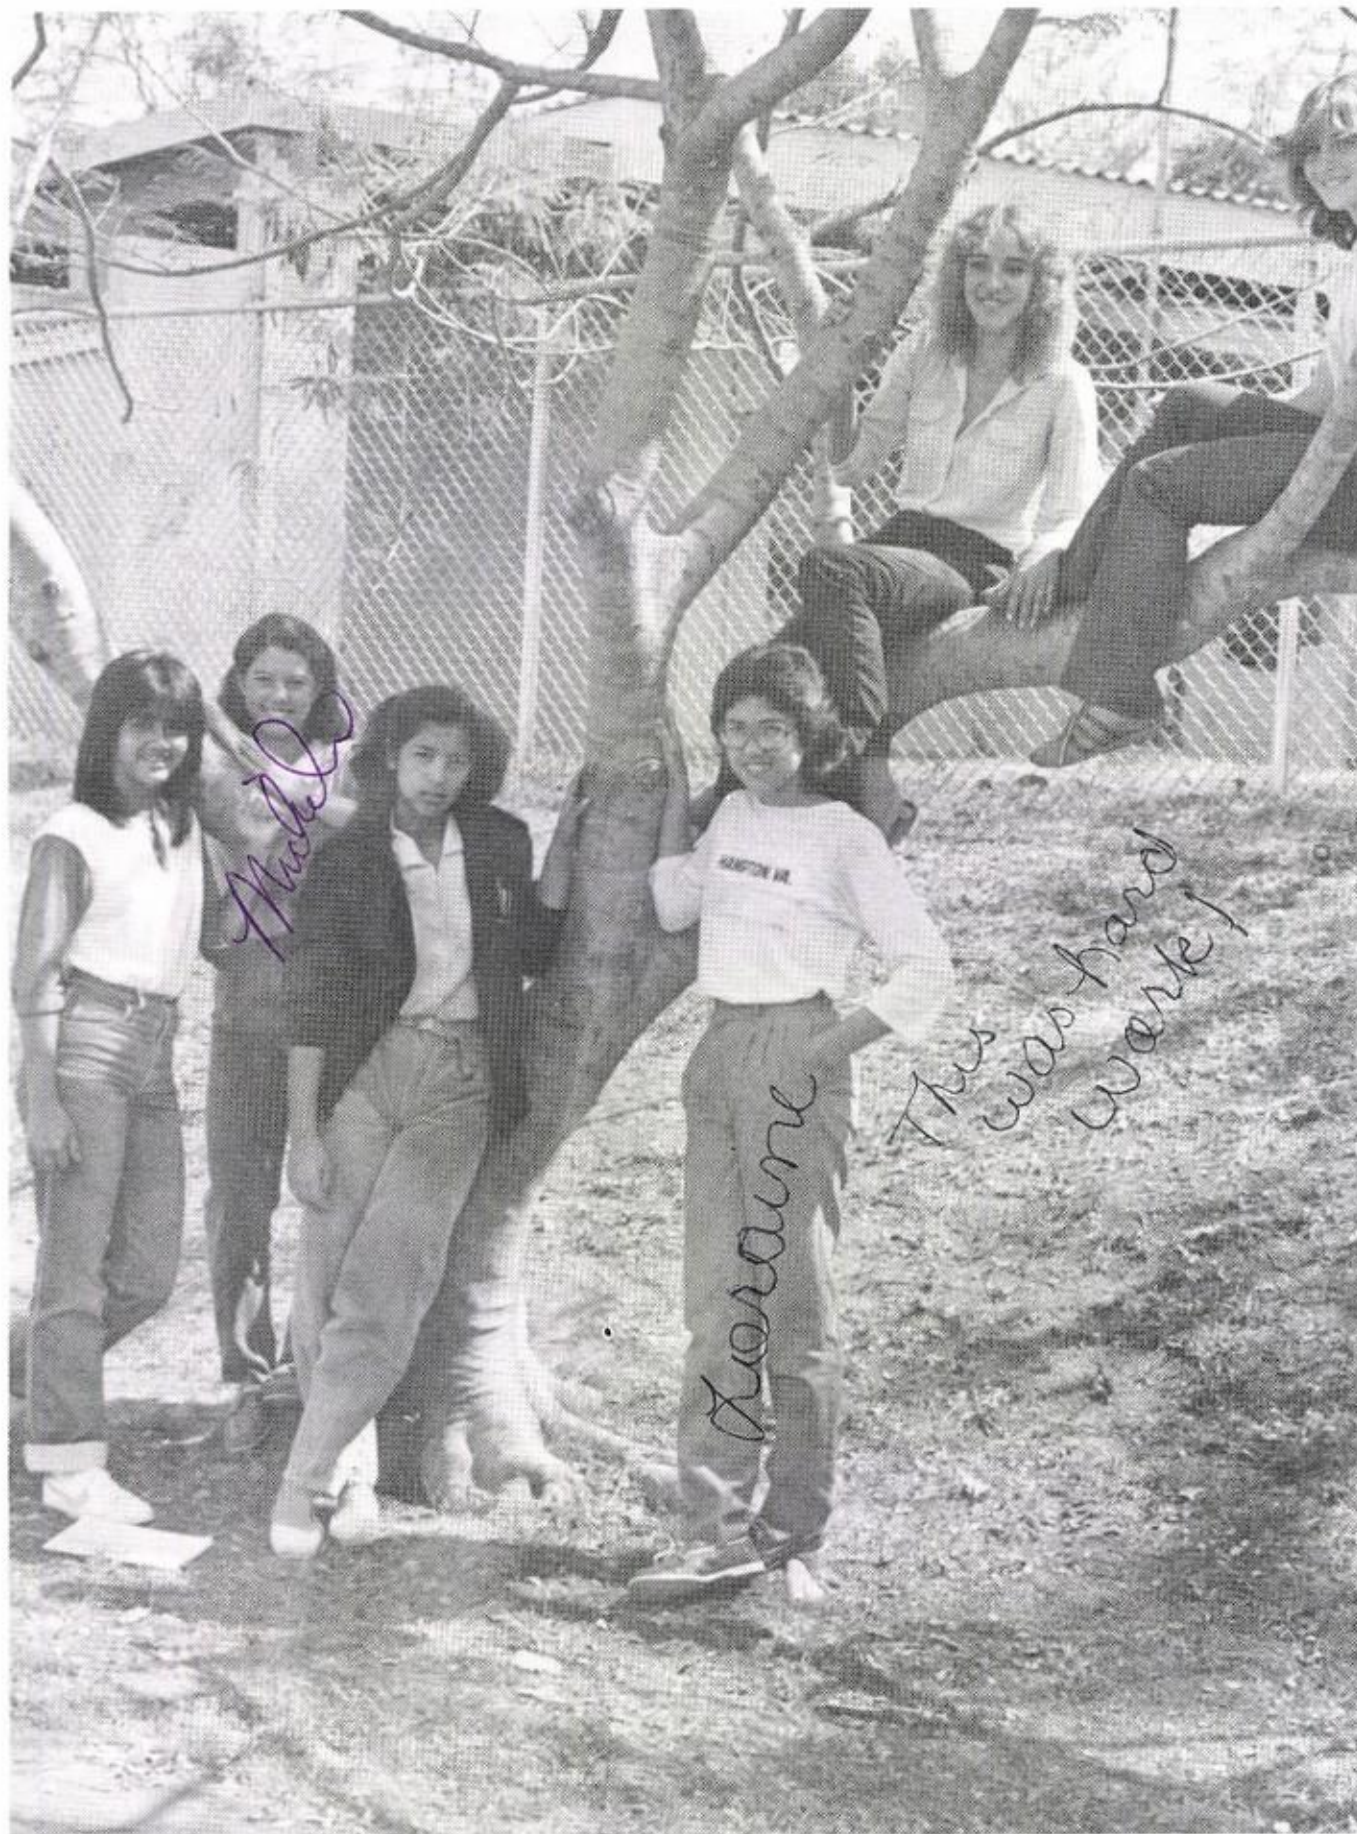

I hope you have a successful life and you reach your goals! Good luck!

Sheila,
I'm so glad ~~we~~ got to know you this year. Through all our endeavors and excursions. Most predominant in our minds
I'm sure is that evening of the bowling alley; earthquake and F.E.N. What a bright! Then there's band.
Remember the TRUMPETS!!!!
Then on to Subbie. "While we're young!" "We don't have all day." Good luck next year. You and have fun. Enjoy Mongolia!
Play soccer! And write me!!!

Love and of course friendship
